Thesis Title	Unbounded Dependencies in English : A Pedagogical Analysis
Year	1999
Abstract	Unbounded dependency is a transformational term . It is used to refer to a construction in which a syntactic relation holds between two constituents whereby there is no restriction on the structural distance between them. Clefting , Topicalizaion and relativization are involved in his theory . Such structures are used for the purpose of emphasis. The study aims at: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1- Finding out if Iraqi advanced learners of English can produce the above three constructions. 2- Revealing which one of the here constructions under study cannot be mastered after reaching the university level. 3- Shedding light upon the possible reasons behind the correct and incorrect production. 4- Suggesting remedial work for overcoming difficulties, if any , encountered in this linguistic area .
