The twentieth century is considered to be a big change in the life of the East in general and in specific Turkey, for the events it witnessed which were reflected in a way or another on the on the social, literature and mental life of the Turkish Public. All this represented the production of the poets, writers and thinker. The Turkish literature in the twentieth century was distinguished in many literature personalities that occupied a poet who chanted the dependence. Mohammed Akif Ersoy, who is one of the dependent poets at the national epoch. He carried the characteristics of the epoch in which he lived, as well as the previous epoch. Mohammed Akif Ersoy has faith in science as well as in the modernism. He found that the development of Islamic is in the modern science and in the high moral of Islam. In the literature side, Mohammed Akif Ersoy is remained a realistic poet. He is realist and connected with the moral idea, and the concept of the social literature, where his ideas were concentrated on two main points: the national ideology and the Islamic ideology. It is morphology full of feelings of suffering on the poor and the love to the nation, and rebellion on the evils. He has faith in hop, in optimism. While the sufferings and the personal bitterness are available in his poem. The poet dealt with simple style, the social problem at that time. This composed a motivation to study the religious, national ideas of the poet which are available in his collection of poems. From this came our choice of thesis entitled: (the religious and national ideas in the collection of poems (pages) of Mohammed Akif Ersoy.).

The thesis is composed of the following chapters:
1-introduction: it is a summary of the literature currents and the mentality of the Turkish literature in the twentieth century.
2-The first chapter: it dealt with life of the poet, the literature character, his ideas, and his influence.
3-The second chapter: We tackled with the religious and national ideas in his collection of poets.
4-The third chapter: it is a dictionary of the available foreign word definitions.
5-The result: it contains what we concluded from our study and the results.
