Year	2004 AH
Abstract	Until the last years of the nineteenth century , people highly believed in religion . then , scepticism in it came . in the twentieth century , two world wars broke out , which further weakened the people s hopes in a life dominated by security and peace. The European whose psychological comfort – which had been provided by religion and heavenly doctrines – was lost , began to search for a new means or way which would make of his entity a goal and meaning , and link , everything and drag him out of the ((absurdity of existence)) which he felt.
