Thesis Title	The Mishna language and its impact on the Literary productions of Shmuel Yosef Aknoun and Amnon Shamosh.
Year	1999 AD—1420 AH
Abstract	The period of the MISHNAIC HEBREW is considered the most important period in the history of Hebrew language. This language enriched Hebrew by vocabularies and new grammatical innovations. Thus, this language has been considered a holy language amongst the Jews which continued to be developed during the subsequent generation. Many Hebrew writers preferred this language in their literary products for its elastisy and vitality. This aim for this study was, therefore , to show the influence of this languages upon two writers of different origin namely S. AGNON from Eastern Europe and A. SHAMOUSH from Syria.
