

University of Baghdad

| | | | |
|----------------------------------|---|--------------------------------|---|
| College Name | College of languages | | |
| Department | University of Abdul-Rahman Meera Algeria | | |
| Full Name as written in Passport | Likhthari Sa'ad | | |
| e-mail | | | |
| Career | <input type="radio"/> Assistant Lecturer | <input type="radio"/> Lecturer | <input type="radio"/> Assistant Professor |
| | | | <input type="radio"/> Professor |
| Research Title | Ancient Eloquence Works within Semiology and Discourse Analysis | | |
| Shared or Single | <input type="radio"/> Shared name | | <input type="radio"/> Single |
| Published Journal title | | | |
| Volume Number | | | |
| Page | 1 | | |
| Year | 2014 | | |
| Abstract | Ancient Greek and Arabs have left an enormous eloquence legacy characterized by comprehension and cohesion in general. Eloquence had been a cause for proud for both Arabs and Greeks. During the earl beginnings of the modern and contemporary age modern studies appeared in the linguistic and literary field. Among the most prominent such sciences are semiology, discourse analysis and linguistics. Eloquence, which had been termed during the beginnings of the twentieth century as "ancients' stylistics" which performed its role in a certain period, had been noticed to withdraw. | | |