State and Agriculture in Iraq is the title of a book that was translated by the Head of the Department of English Asst. Prof. Sued F. Kadhim and Asst. Prof. Nawar Hussein Radhaiwi and issued this month. The work was sponsored by Dar Mamoon for Translation and Publishing following the Minister of Culture's initiative to translate 100 books.

Students' talents/ crafts

Tiba Mudhar

I'm Tiba Mudhar a student of the English Dept./ 3rd stage. Drawing was my hobby since primary school. I got into a place where this hobby was appreciated by the right people. That is, when I travelled to the Uk. I got my GCSE grade in art as well as my AS level. By this, my art skills have improved massively; I got to create many master pieces about different topics using various types of paintings. Here's one of my paintings.

Ibrahim Abdulah Nasef

Third Stage
My name is Ibrahim Abdulah Nasef, I am student at English Dept. / 3rd stage. I used to draw letters when I was young on any book or sheet, teachers started complaining to my parents about it so I stopped. But the passion about drawing letters and writing them did not stop. I started learning calligraphy almost one year ago. Now I am in intermediate level, I seek to take it more seriously, and start learning graffiti, to beautify the walls of Baghdad and my college.

zainab Ahmed Hamad

I'm zainab Ahmed Hamad a student at the English Dept./ 3rd stage. I've started my painting journey since primary school. I kept practicing different painting types and making new ideas using acrylic paint. The colors that I mostly use are the colors of nature like green and blue.

THE END of THE MERMAID?

Dalal Alaa / Third year

And a new era will begin, in the awakening of the promised moon...
The legend appeared on the surface of the ocean ...
After losing her voice, left the ocean. The land was unlike the ocean
She wasn't comforted by whispers or breezes, everyone
To love she runs.. neither the cloak nor the shroud to hide..
No slumber with threats to end this princess that's all she wants

The Mirror

By: Saif Ali
Third Year

Growing up all these years
Human .. had fallen tears

Looking in the mirror
What did I do to myself
Just breathing like anyone else

Looking in the mirror
A new age that I am in
Will be like I've never been
New human will be born

Lots of Goals will be done

Looking in the mirror
I promise you my soul
Will not hurt you anymore

Looking in the mirror
Sorry to myself
Sorry for all these years
Just for leaving you
For not knowing you

After she realized her desires , overthrew all. kept calm in hell..
When she had a life without loyalty..
Proved that fire can pass through coralty... the earth, the ocean and the sky are empty only the creator makes her happy She said :
No problem indeed If she is to be dead Why to Live her good deed.

Meet and Greet Party

Asst. Prof. Sued F. Al-Janabi: The Head of the Department of English with the staff members welcomed the students of the first stage in a ceremony (meet and greet) held in the College main Hall. Students from other stages participated in the event.
